

19th Hole Golf Club Report

Carmichael Elks Golf Clubhouse

The Carmichael Elks Golf Club members met at the Lodge on Thursday, October 3rd, to discuss club business and upcoming events.

President Bill Bethell started the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance and welcomed all in attendance. Vice President John Simmons reported on the Annual September picnic which was well attended and enjoyed by members and their guests. The gourmet fare included and a main course of Hamburgers, Polish Dogs and Hot dogs, cooked by chef John Simmons, with help from member Jim Kuchar. Thanks was made to members and their guests who contributed a variety of fantastic Pot Luck dishes that were enjoyed by all. VP Simmons also thanked Kristi and Ray Ernst who helped set up the picnic area on the Lodge patio. The Corn Hole Game was popular, but all members and guests enjoyed watching players compete in the chipping contest. Judges Ed Arnsdorf and Guy Deaner conducted the event. The First Place winner Kristi Ernst, was just a tiny eight inches from the "hole." Keeping it in the family, Ray Ernst claimed Second Place with a somewhat larger 9 inch putt. Third Place was a modicum more at 16 inches and went to Bill Bethell. Coming in at a comfortable Fourth Place was John Simmons with a little larger 22 inch putt. Honorable mention goes to John Glover whose putt was just a tiny bit larger at 23 inches. The September tournaments results were next on the agenda.

Director Stan Morrison presented the results of the Wildhawk tournament held on 9/16/24. It was a wonderful golfing day, with sunshine and a mild breeze on a challenging course.
